WHO WAS OUTSTANDING IN 2025?

Please specify which award you are nominating this business/person for; you may make nominations in each category. Please use one form per nomination. Self-nominations are accepted and encouraged; no one knows your business or product like you!

( ) Citizen of the Year ( ) Business of the Year

( ) New Business or Product ( ) Customer Service Award

Nomination Criteria:

Businesses must be a Redmond Chamber of Commerce member in good standing.

- Citizen of the Year - Any citizen of Redmond may be nominated as Citizen of the Year. Recipients are selected based on outstanding service to the community in a voluntary capacity outside his or her business, profession, or vocation. The recipient must have demonstrated leadership and cooperation in the achievement of community and civic enterprises benefiting individual citizens and the community of Redmond. Membership in the Chamber is not a required criterion for eligibility for this award.

- Business of the Year - This business should have demonstrated inspiration and resourcefulness in the development of its business, product and/or service. The nominee should have been involved in Chamber and community activities or committees. The business could have responded effectively to adversity. Company growth may have been experienced in terms of employees, product, and/or services.

- New Business or Product - This business may have recently opened or launched a new product. The new business must show involvement in the community and Chamber or the new product must show creativity, imagination in the development of products. Improvements, advancements, or originality must also have been shown.

- Customer Service Award - This business should excel in the area of outstanding service, providing an experience that is truly unique and rewarding to the customer.

Please give examples of why this business/person should be recognized (Attach additional sheets if needed):
